SUCCESSFUL REGATTAS.

The CCRYC were successful at the final 10R Interclub at Cockle Creek with 20 10Rs on the water, a great sight with the good breeze. CCRYC yachts filling high spots for the day as well.

The Central Coast Seabreeze Festival was also a good outing for CCRYC, although visiting yachts were not that visible, hopefully next year when we don't have any clashes with other important regattas we can get into the publicity and get more yachts. The venue was excellent apart from some weed which we all had to sail in, pretty good rigging and launch area added to the day. Apart from passing cyclones the weather was OK.

Our last day of formal sailing is on the 2.12.07, but don't forget our Presentation Evening on the 9.12.07.
