Another day of light winds and perfect millpond conditions by mid afternoon - all you need for exciting and competitive racing! (Not). When will we see a raceday with some decent wind? Maybe not this year - I was thinking of naming 2007 the 'year of the drift'. Once again the light weather specialists did well in the conditions and all credit to them. Many thanks to Sid who has taken on the Handicap Race Officer's role - well done on your first outing. After only 6 Soling 1M races the winner on the day was Phil followed by Frank and Ian. The 10 Raters fared worse with only 4 races in the day. The results were Phil in first place (on a count back) from Allan with Terry in third place. I am crossing my fingers and toes in the hope that next race day will bring some decent wind and some exciting and close racing.
