The day was warm with light winds initially out of the N/NW, swinging around to the S/W, and then dropping off by mid afternoon. Soling 1Ms were first up and they did well in the light conditions with Ian taking first place, followed by Terry in second, and Michael, Sid and Kevin in third. A big welcome today to Bob Brown who sailed his Soling 1M for the first time. The 10 rater competition started after lunch and everyone tried to extract every breath of air in the light conditions. Allan's Paradox was too good in the light stuff, with Sid also enjoying the conditions coming in second, and Ian third. A very pleasant day of sailing was had by all - but more wind would be nice!
