The weather today was very mild with the forecast rain staying away for most of the day. The first race started in very light conditions with the Soling 1Ms drifting in all different directions (mostly away from the windward buoy that the skippers were trying to get to). After about 15 minutes all skippers were feeling that it could be a very long day. Luckily, the wind then started to pick up and we had a reasonable breeze for the rest of the day. Sid raced his brand new Phoenix 3 Ten Rater for the first time and, with some fine tuning, it will be very hard to beat. The winners today were Sid in the Soling 1Ms (on a countback) and Phil in the 10 Raters (also on a countback).
